

JAIL DELIVERY
IN PETERSBURG

Pitt and Ravenback Held There for Swindling, and Wanted Here—Break Jail.

MAKE PERILOUS ESCAPE

Bridge, Constructed of Bedstead and Blankets, Is Suspended Forty Feet Above Ground.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
PETERSBURG, Va., February 20.— Three white prisoners made a bold and ingenious escape from the city jail early this morning by sawing out one of the high square iron bars to their cell window, which is forty feet above the jail yard, and then suspending from the window-sill to the top of the jail yard wall a bridge, which they had made of the two sides of a bedstead in their cell.

The escapee prisoners, who are A. J. Gregory, all serving six months sentences for robbing and swindling.
Pitt and Ravenback are the young men who were convicted in the Mayor's Court only four days ago of collecting subscriptions for a Philadelphia magazine by falsely representing themselves as soliciting agents. They are wanted in Richmond on a large number of charges, and are said to have operated in several other cities.

Gregory was brought back here from Florida in January, and after pleading guilty to a charge of robbing a room at Mrs. McGee's boarding-house, was sent to jail for six months.

Would Not Leave.
M. K. Suter, who was Gregory's pal, and another prisoner named Richard Taylor were in the cell with the escaping men, but apparently made no effort to join them, and certainly kept on the quiet. Suter, who had been in the jail called Jailer Bowles about 4 o'clock this morning and asked for a dose of medicine. It is thought that while the jailer was procuring the medicine the escape was effected.

The bridge, from the window to the wall, was constructed by lashing the sides of the bedstead together with pieces of the mattress, strips of blankets and other bedding, across which the three men crawled forty feet above the ground to the top of the wall, which is about four and a half feet higher than the window sill, and at least twelve feet away. The cell is on the southern side of the top floor of the building. The city sergeant has frequently reported the unsafe condition of the jail and the urgent necessity for improvements of many kinds, and recently notified the sheriff of Nottoway county that the building was unfit for the safekeeping of a condemned prisoner, whom the Nottoway sheriff proposed to send here. When Sergeant Evans searched the cell this morning he found several small steel saws sewed up in clothes worn by Emmett Pouch, the wife-murderer, who was taken to the penitentiary on Monday. Pouch was a dogged, persistent type of man, and may have done some of the filling of the window bar. No news of the fugitives has been received, and a wide alarm has been telegraphed and reward offered.

Former Policeman Fined.

John Aiken, a large and powerful young white man who served for a short time as a substitute policeman, was fined $50 and sent to jail for thirty days in the Mayor's Court this morning for feloniously assaulting J. C.
Wall, a conductor employed by the Virginia Passenger and Power Company, near the car barn in the West End last night. Five witnesses corroborated each other in the story that Aiken boarded Wall's car, accused him of causing Aiken to wait, to leave by leaving Fordham Park several minutes ahead of time, and, after Wall's denial, struck the conductor a powerful blow in the face, knocking out a tooth and rendering him unconscious. The accused man made no denial, and asked for the removal of the jail sentence, which was promptly refused by the Mayor.

MR. JANSEN ENTERTAINS.

Scandinavian Humorist Makes Good Impression at V. P. I.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
BLACKSBURG, Va., February 20.— Mr. Jansen, the noted Scandinavian humorist, who has been in the city for some time, has given three highly creditable entertainments here in the last few days, and they have been a genuine treat to those who have heard him. His first appearance was on Tuesday evening in the auditorium, when he delighted a large audience with his versatility and excellent work in impersonating a number of historical characters. Monday evening he entertained the student body in the Y.
M. C. A. hall with another clever performance, and Tuesday evening he was at the old gymnasium, under the auspices of the local Lodge of Knights of Pythias, the chief feature of his entertainment being a rendition of "Damon and Pythias." All who heard Mr. Jansen were well pleased with him as a public entertainer and as a man.

Mr. W. D. Weatherford, international secretary of the Y. M. C. A., was here Saturday and Sunday, and delivered several excellent addresses before the student body. Since the visit of Mr.
Weatherford paid the association, in the fall, there has been a notable increase in the interest of the students in the association work, and this visit has served to deepen and intensify this feeling.

citizens of King George, died on Friday from the effects of a fall from which he suffered two days. Wednesday night he fell while in his room, dislocating one of his hips and sustaining severe bruises. Dr.
Caruthers was called and rendered all possible assistance for his relief, but on Friday he passed away without any unusual suffering.

His funeral took place Sunday afternoon and his remains were laid to rest in the old family burying-ground at Middleboro. The services were conducted by Rev. C. E. Rob-day, of the Methodist Church, of which Mr.
Brown was a member.

He was the second son of the late E. J. S.
Brown, of King George, and was a man of much intelligence. Not long ago he was decided to apply for a position under the government, and wrote to the proper authorities. His letter and penmanship were faultless, and he received the desired appointment without any other recommendation. He held the position as long as he wished and then resigned. He was almost eighty-five years old. He never married.
He is survived by three brothers and three sisters—Mr. E. D. Brown, of King George; Mr. George B. Brown, of Louisiana; Mr.
Henry M. Brown, of Charleston, W. Va.; Mrs. M. A. Brown, of Colonial Beach; Mr.
Colonel Wynn, of North Carolina, and Mrs.
Henry Wingfield, of Hanover county.

Agricultural Club and the Masons Entertain This Week.

Two banquets will be given this week which are of more than ordinary interest. The Agricultural Club of the Institute will be the hosts at the annual dinner on Friday evening in the dining hall, when there will be a number of short speeches by specialists along this line of work and an elaborate menu which will be served, the ladies will give the occasion with their presence. The same evening at the Blackburg Inn, the Masons will give a banquet of sixty master of the order.

The Richmond Club of the Virginia Polytechnic Institute gave their annual Saturday evening from 8 to 11.

Thirty-five members of the organizacellent menu prepared by Mr. J. H.

Shultz after the manner of college boys. This club has a large membership of boys hailing from the capital city and give a banquet every year.

RESCUES SOLDIERS.

Two Men Who Had Been Shanghaied Are Set Free.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
IRVINGTON, Va., February 20.— United States revenue cutter Apache, in overhauling oyster vessels on the Potomac river, rescued two soldiers who had been shanghaied and imprisoned on a schooner on which they were interposed. The schooner was found with gone into an ice-locked bay out of reach of the cutter, but the Virginia oyster flagship Commodore Maury found a way in and carried the government officers to the rescue. The Maury is cruising the Potomac and battling with ice and pirates.

FIRE ON ITALIANS.

Escape Camp—Are Driven Back.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
LYNCHBURG, Va., February 20.— Fifteen Italians, with bags packed to leave the camp, attempted to pass the quarantine at the small-post-infested camp, below the city, late this afternoon, and they were fired on by the guard and forced to stay in the camp. There were two cases and one suspect in the camp, in which there are 150 men.

SPAN CONTINENT
FOR EXPOSITION

California Cadets, 360 Strong, Anxious to Come to Jamestown Fair.

CREDITORS GET ACTIVE

Those Interested in Assets of Southern Contracting Company Take Prompt Action.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) NORFOLK, Va., February 20.—The University of California cadets, it is probable, will encamp at the Jamestown Exposition. The matter has not yet been definitely decided, but it is expected today by Mr. H. H. Sexton, chief of the department of congresses and special events of the exposition, from Captain J. T. Nance, professor of military science and tactics at the California University, it was stated that the cadets wanted to visit the exposition, and that they would do so if the arrangements could be made.

It was also stated that if the trip is made it will have to be as early after May 15th as possible, as the total number of 360 cadets, with the university band, will have to be provided for by the Exposition Company.

That the cadets of far-away California should make the trip to Norfolk for the purpose of encamping at the exposition indicates how well the terecen-tennial is advertised throughout the United States, and it is expected that the troops from other far Western States will soon complete their arrangements for encamping at the exposition.

Lieutenant H. N. Cootes, military secretary of the Jamestown Exposition, left this morning for Atlanta, Ga., and Chattanooga, Tenn., where he will complete arrangements with the National Guard of those cities for their encampment at the exposition.

Creditors Take a Hand.

Creditors of the Southern Contracting Company, which made an assignment on Monday for the benefit of its creditors, attorneys, Taylor Gwathmey, being named as trustee, have taken action in the United States Court asking that the company be adjudged a bankrupt, according to the laws of the United States. It is alleged that the company previously to its assignment had been conducting business in Norfolk and vicinity.

Those creditors joining in the petition are: Charles G. Smith & Son, of Washington; the International Fence and Pipefencing Company, of Ohio; Mc-Clenahan & Granite Company, of Maryland; Nottingham & Vreeden Company, Norfolk; Smith-Courtney Company, of the Southern Lime and Cement Company, of Charleston, S. C.

Among the officers and directors of the Southern Contracting Company are some of the prominent business men and lawyers of the city.

G. Taylor Gwathmey has as yet issued no financial statement bearing on the affairs of the company, but its liabilities are supposed to be about $50,000 and assets about $20,000. General creditors, it is reported, will get but a small part of their claims.

The company conducted an extensive paving business in Norfolk and vicinity.

MONEY FOR STATE.

Darkies in Chesterfield Use Fire-Irons and Pay for It Dearly.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
CHESTERFIELD, Va., February 20.—Tariff for the State continues to be a heavy burden on young negro freemen hereabouts. Last Saturday night, after Master Alfred Strother, a highly appreciated white resident of this town, had left his place of employment and was on his way home, a party of darkies in a most unbecomingly noisy and unpleasant manner to his mother's home, carried a basket of butter home, he rosted his basket on the platform of the Coast Line depot here, to go in to speak to the agent a moment, and when he came out, James Frazier, a negro, carrying within a full supply

DREADFUL DISEASE
CURED BY CUTICURA

"About four years ago I was afflicted with black blotches all over my face and a few on my body, which produced a severe itching irritation, and which caused me a great deal of annoyance and suffering, to such an extent that I was forced to call in two of the leading physicians of my city, who, after a thorough examination of the dreaded condition they announced it to be skin eczema in its worst form. They treated me for three years, but without any good. Finally I became despondent and decided to discontinue their services. Shortly afterwards my husband in reading a copy of a weekly New York paper saw an advertisement of the Cuticure Remedies. He purchased the entire outfit, and after using the contents of the first bottle of Cuticure Remedy in connection with the Cuticure Soap and Ointment, the breaking out entirely stopped. I continued the use of the Cuticure Remedies for six months, and after that every blotch was entirely gone and the affected parts were left as clear as ever. I have not felt a symptom of the dreaded eczema since. I was three years ago. The Cuticure Remedy does not only cure me of that dreadful disease, eczema, but of other complicated troubles as well, and I have been the benefactor of many others who have been suffering from the same disease by the Cuticure Remedies, and I don't hesitate in saying that Cuticure Remedy is the best blood medicine I have ever known.

Here is one from Mrs. De Jamette:

"I appreciate highly the beautiful presents sent me of "firewater," had appropriated the basket and butter, and was taking it away. Young Strother told him the goods were his, and demanded the same, when Frazier, he said, drew a pistol and told him he would not surrender it. Later on Sunday, after the news became known, a special constable went after Frazier, who was found asleep, after having partially consumed the butter. He admitted the offense, and the iniquity of it, save he denied using a pistol. He was sent to the depot and guarded all night, and on Monday he was given a hearing. The magistrate remanded him to jail at first, but upon his pleading and the request of the plaintiff that the magistrate would change to a fine, the "squire" made him pay $25.00 for the butter and the pistol.

This morning the "squire" held a court for several others. Two young negroes got into a scrap at a "festival," in which one was cut. The "squire" charged them $5 apiece for the fuss, and $2 for the knife.

At Centralia, five negroes, quite merry, began to wrestle and disturb a storekeeper there. They were arrested by a negro constable and the "squire" charged them $4.85 apiece for the sport. This latter happened in the night. The last case was a more serious one, Henderson Brightly, an other negro, with the "pistol-toting" craze, had been to Chester from the city, with other negroes, to mix elder city whiskey together, and the whole party, after a good deal of drinking, themselves and disturbing their residing neighbors, with the melody of pistol explosions along their journey.

After going a mile or more, they stopped in the sombre and sacred confines of a negro cemetery, and made a camp-fire to dry a companion who was so unbalanced, as to fall into a hole of water on their night trail, and while in this seemingly charitable employment, the thought may have occurred to them that they were at a place for a burial, but any rate, Henderson let the machine-gun begin, and one negro was shot through the calf of the leg, and another was shot in the nose and head. The burial did not take place then, but Dr. A. J. Hart, who was summoned to say whether a burial should follow, informed them that the negro, who caught the ball on his nose, could have a few days to prepare for death at the Memorial Hospital at Richmond, and that possibly his life might be further relieved. Henderson's mother, who pleaded the justice to spare her boy, being her only support, but the "squire" decided he would have to wait to see whether the doctors would prolong life until he could be sent to the penitentiary, and head could appear in court and testify, and sent Henderson, by officer Watts, to the Manchester jail to appear before him again on the 9th of March.

Well, Henderson is that fortunate, even to the point of accidental discharge of his weapon. It is likely he will have to stay in jail for a while and pay $100 for carrying a fifty-cent pistol.

ARMY CHAPLAIN.

Talk of Rev. W. G. Parker Going Into Uncle Sam's Service.

NORFOLK, Va., February 20.—Rev. W.
G. Parker, chaplain of the Seventy-first Virginia Regiment, and a member of the Virginia Conference of the M. E. Church, Southwestern branch, has been appointed as a chaplain in the regular army.

Feeling that Mr. Parker is particularly adapted to army work, leading regimental officers have had him file an application with the War Department at Washington for the position of chaplain.

Just what would be Rev. Mr. Parker's course should he be tendered a commission in the army, is not certain. He is now pastor of Park View Methodist Church, Portsmouth, having come to that charge in November last from Whaleyville, Nansemond county.

He is a native of Southampton county.
Mr. Parker is a fine preacher and wonderful worker. He greatly built up Park View Church, and became its pastor, and the members of that church would greatly hate to lose him, should he go into the army.

NEW SHOE COMPANY.

Lynchburg to Have Another Wholesale Footwear House.

LYNCHBURG, Va., February 20.—Another wholesale shoe house, backed by Lynchburg capital and under the name of the Coney Shoe Company, will soon be launched in Lynchburg, with its capitalization limited to $250,000. The application for a charter has been made, and representatives of the company are in Boston making purchases preparatory to opening the new business. The officers of the company will be: President, P. G. Cosby; Vice-President, George H.
Cosby, and Secretary-Treasurer, J. R.
Turner.

This gives Lynchburg six wholesale shoe concerns, with three factories in operation and two more under construction.
